DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
This two story, three bay commercial building is located in mid-block; it is flat-roofed and surfaced in running-bond brick. Three sets of storefronts open from the ground floor. In the left bay, framed by a pair of panelled wooden Corinthian pilasters, is a double entryway and single light picture window. The thick wooden mullion separates the five-part transom of the door from the one 12-part transom of the window. The outer doorway is a rectangular opening leading to a short foyer, from the back of which a rectangular door opens. The center bay contains a similar storefront, with a two light picture window. The right bay's a picture window is four lights wide, with a pair of five light transoms and a double ventilator above. A stone foundation underlies the ground floor, only interrupted by the single stone step approaching each of the identical doorways. A simple wooden storefront cornice, supported by the pilasters separating each storefront, caps the ground floor. The second floor end bays display slightly bayed, one light picture windows flanked by single casements. Tripartite transoms are above, and the entire groups are surrounded by header brick sills and lintels. The center bay contains a trio of smaller models of these window groups, each with single transom and separated by brick posts. A patterned brick and diamonded course underlies the simple wooden cornice.
